Barbara Elleman

Barbara Elleman's exploration of Tomie dePaola's career takes a fascinating look at the many worlds dePaola has brought to life through his work: from autobiographical memories to folktales, religious stories, nursery rhymes, and more—including, of course, the inventive world of his most famous character, Strega Nona. Illustrated.

Christopher, the Holy Giant | Tomie dePaola

“A long time ago, in the land of Canaan, there lived a giant known as Reprobos. Because he was so big and strong, Reprobos wished to serve the greatest and most powerful king in all the world. So he set off to find him . . .” For hundreds of years Catholics honored Christopher as the patron saint of travelers. But when he came to be seen as more mythical than historical, the Church discouraged devotion to him. Wanting to preserve the legend of the giant who carried the Christ Child, Tomie dePaola retold and illustrated the story in this captivating book.

Mary, the Mother of Jesus

The late, beloved children's book writer and illustrator Tomie dePaola said that when he was "still an art student and saw the Giotto frescoes of the life of Mary in the Arena Chapel in Padua, Italy, I knew that someday I would create my own visual version of Mary's life."

DePaola's splendid depiction of the life of Mary, the mother of Jesus, is sure to touch the heart of every child, and adult. These beautifully written and illustrated episodes draw on the Bible, Church tradition, and pious legend to present the woman chosen by God to bring the Savior into the world.

The Little Friar Who Flew

Patricia Lee Gauch

Illustrated by Tomie dePaola

Joseph called himself Little Donkey—such a clumsy, foolish fellow, or so everyone thought. That is perhaps why people of Cupertino did not notice what happened whenever Joseph was overjoyed. He did not merely smile or squeeze his sides or rub his hands together. Joseph flew.

Petook, proud father to a new brood of chicks, is quick to protect them from an intruding young stranger named Jesus. But when he sees the child caressing his chicks, Petook is soothed and crows happily.

Years later, Petook, awaiting another hatching, becomes strangely agitated when he sees men being lifted onto crosses on Calvary's hill. He is unaware that the same Jesus is one of the crucified men. Three days later on Easter morning, the new batch of chicks hatch, coinciding with the Resurrection of the stranger. Petook crows with great joy, celebrating the mystery of new life.
