The Detransition Diaries

Jennifer Lahl and Kallie Fell

We live in unprecedented times, when what was known for thousands of years, that we are created male and female, is now up for debate. It is now controversial to see that sex is binary, that a man can never become a woman, nor a woman a man. We are witnessing a rapid rise in gender confusion among young people, especially among young women and girls.

The Detransition Diaries is both personal and historical. It is personal in that it recounts the stories of five women and two men who felt they were born in the wrong body and believed the lie they were told by peers, teachers, and medical professionals that they could be their "true" selves by medically and surgically altering their bodies to match the opposite sex. Their stories describe the short- and long-term harm that so-called gender-affirmative medicine did to their mental and physical health.

The book closes with an analysis on how this dark chapter in medical abuse might end and what is needed for medicine to regain its obligation to do no harm.

DDP • 250 pp, Sewn Softcover, $18.95

“This book skillfully presents the victims of transgender ideology, while also placing this latest misdirection of medicine in a historical context with other violations of medical ethics.”

— Ryan T. Anderson, Ph.D., President,
Ethics and Public Policy Center

“A trenchant critique of the radical ideology and junk science underpinning the ethical scandal unfolding in America’s gender clinics.”

“These interviews offer a compelling warrant for hope for the Church’s future in the United States.”

— John Cavadini, Professor of Theology and Director, McGrath Institute for Church Life, University of Notre Dame

True Confessions E

Voices of Faith from a Life in the Church

Francis Maier
Introduction by Archbishop Emeritus
Charles J. Chaput,
O.F.M.

Over the past decade Rome has been marked with sharp, and often unwarranted, criticism of the Church in the United States and American Catholic life. But very few of the critics have taken the time to talk, systematically, with a wide range of U.S. Catholics to understand their concerns. True Confessions is unique for its frank and in-depth interviews with 103 bishops, clergy, religious, and lay men and women from various backgrounds.

The wide-ranging subject matter includes the unseen challenges of life as a bishop; the pressures and satisfactions of the priesthood, the diaconate, and the consecrated life; the structural and leadership ingredients of diocesan success and failure; fallout from the Church’s sex-abuse scandals; problems in Catholic universities; attitudes toward the Vatican; the role of Catholics in the academy and the secular culture; the witness of parents who have children with special needs; and the testimony of immigrant Americans as they assess their new homeland.

Finally, the book presents the reasons why so many U.S. Catholics, despite today’s challenges, continue to love the Church and cherish their faith with joy and energy.

On Obedience E | Adrienne von Speyr

One of the last works by Adrienne von Speyr, which can be taken as an overview of her entire Christian vision—a vision which always sees, as it were, a perfect, rounded whole, where every cross-section captures the complete picture. For her, this whole means both heaven and earth, God and creation. It means the Trinity, Christ, Mary, the Church, and the individual Christian, reaching all the way to the mysterious pinnacle of triune love, which in the concept of obedience appears more clearly than ever as the ground and goal of all things.

Adrienne speaks with a marvelous clarity, precision, and even practicality, not only for our age—which will only overcome its disgust with obedience if it develops a holistic vision—but for all individuals who wish to live out obedience in a deeper way, whether as laymen or as consecrated religious.

“More than a whodunit, this mystery is a meditation on what it means to be an outsider in the place you call home. Exposing the bitter class hatreds of the '40s, De Maria rips the 'cozy' label from the vintage village crime.”

— Dorothy McLean, Author, Ceremony of Innocence

“Catholic writer Fiorella De Maria deserves a wide audience.”

Missing, Presumed Lost E A Father Gabriel Mystery

Fiorella De Maria

Fr. Gabriel returns to St Mary's Abbey, but all is not well in the sleepy village of Sutton Westford. A former village boy turned property developer has returned to build houses on the grounds of a disused mine. A local opposition group campaigns to stop him, and he receives increasingly menacing threats. Then workmen make a gruesome discovery on the site—the skeleton of a child missing for 30 years.

Fr Gabriel is called in to investigate, but the task seems impossible—how to uncover a secret carefully hidden for so long? Is the killer even still alive? Worse, as the tragic details emerge, Gabriel is tormented by the memory of his own daughter and the life that was stolen from her many years before.

Seeing Red A Novel E

T.M. Doran

A thriller set in an alternate America both familiar and unfamiliar—a darkening society that must contend with more than one crafty Odysseus. Six Extraordinary Designation Card recipients are hiding on an abandoned northern Michigan movie set, seeking to escape the controlling thumb of the state. An Academy-Award winning screenwriter discovers these people by accident and soon so does the state, setting in motion a deadly cat-and-mouse game.

Seeing Red takes us from the forests of Michigan to Hollywood and back again, through a world of celebrities, strange fugitives and sinister figures lurking in the shadows. T.M. Doran presents a timely and gripping story in an era when human rights mean very different things to societies and individuals.

SEERP • 260 pp, Sewn Softcover, $17.95

— Augustine Wetta, O.S.B., Author, Humility Rules

“A sharply written novel, shimmering with mystery and edged with redemption.”

— Peco Gaskovski, Author, Exogenesis

What Every Catholic

SAVE 25% Should Know

Suffering What Every Catholic Should Know E | Mark Giszczak

Just as Job was tried, all of us are tested by suffering. It comes to us in many different forms: grief about the past, pain in the present, and sadness about what might have been. The personal dimension of suffering means that it marks our experience and, in some ways, makes us who we are.

Coping with suffering as Christians includes certain spiritual practices that lead us to surrender our lives more fully to the Lord. By offering our suffering as a spiritual sacrifice, joined intentionally to the suffering of Christ through prayer, we engage with the most profound Christian teaching about suffering: that it is redemptive. Suffering can transform us to be like God.

The Eucharist Is Really Jesus

How Christ's Body and Blood Are the Key to Everything We Believe

Joe Heschmeyer

When the resurrected Jesus appeared to two disciples on the road to Emmaus, they didn't know him. He was there in the flesh, talking, teaching, but they didn't recognize him. Until the breaking of the bread. Then their eyes were open, and everything fell into place. When we recognize Jesus in the bread of the Holy Eucharist—when we understand that it's really Jesus—our eyes of faith are opened, and the mysteries of the Christian life are unlocked.

Joe Heschmeyer first explains how Catholic belief in the Eucharist is biblical and reasonable. If you're used to thinking of Communion as a purely symbolic ritual, you'll find here a compelling defense of the ancient doctrine of the Real Presence. But even if you already believe it, Heschmeyer shows how that's not an end, but just the beginning.

The Crisis of Western Education

Christopher Dawson

The Crisis of Western Education, originally published in 1961, served as a capstone of Christopher Dawson's thought on the Western educational system.

Dawson argued that Western culture had become increasingly defined by a set of economic and political preoccupations ultimately hostile to its larger spiritual end. Inevitably, its educational systems also became increasingly technological and pragmatic, undermining the long standing emphasis on liberal learning and spiritual reflection which were hallmarks of the Christian humanism that created it.

Dawson offers a diagnosis of modern education and proposes the retrieval of an organic and living culture which alone has the power to renew Western culture.

Glorifying Christ
*The Life of Cardinal
 Francis E. George, O.M.I.*
Michael R. Heinlein

Cardinal Francis E. George, O.M.I., was an exemplary pastor and heroic disciple of Christ. A native Chicagoan, he was told as a young man that he would never be a priest in Chicago because of a physical disability resulting from polio. He went on to be ordained a priest with the Oblates of Mary Immaculate in 1963. The native son was appointed as archbishop of Chicago in 1997, created a cardinal in 1998, and served in Chicago until 2014, just months before his death in April 2015.

Cardinal George was a prophetic voice in the Church — a man able to see things as they are and from the point of view of the whole Church. His episcopal motto, “To Christ be glory in the Church,” encapsulates his legacy, because every decision he made, every action he took, every suffering he endured was about serving others and pointing them to our Savior.

How the Fathers
 Read the Bible
Scripture, Liturgy, and the Early Church
Mike Aquilina

It takes some real imagination to go back fifteen or twenty centuries to an age when ordinary people didn't have Bibles. But if we don't put in that work, we'll misunderstand the early Christians completely.

The early Christians didn't live in our world, and their encounters with Scripture happened in one main context: the liturgy. That was where they heard Scripture. And just as important, that was where they heard Scripture interpreted.

In How the Fathers Read the Bible: Scripture, Liturgy, and the Early Church, Mike Aquilina takes readers back to the first centuries of Church life to show how the liturgy became the home of—and the interpretative lens for—Scripture. Aquilina shows how, both then and now, Scripture is only understood through the life of the Church—and in particular, through the liturgy.

Son of Hamas includes new information about the world's most dangerous terrorist organization and unveils the truth about Mosab's own role, the dangerous decision to make his newfound faith public, and his belief that the Christian mandate to “love your enemies” is the only way to peace in the Middle East.

Atonement ESoundings in Biblical, Trinitarian, and Spiritual TheologyMargaret Turek

This book presents insights concerning the mystery of atonement with four theological guides: John Paul II, Joseph Ratzinger/Benedict XVI, Hans Urs von Balthasar, and Norbert Hoffmann.

The author argues for the central importance and perennial value of a theology of atonement, even as she explains the modern aversion to it. The book's central aim is to deepen our understanding of the biblical claim that God shows himself to be love precisely by sending his Son as atonement. "In this is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins" (1 Jn 4:10).

He Gave Us So Much <sup>E</sup>

A Tribute to Benedict XVI

Robert Cardinal Sarah

In He Gave Us So Much, Cardinal Sarah traces the spiritual contours of Ratzinger's life and thought, revealing the image of a man on fire with love for God and neighbor. Benedict XVI was no professor in an ivory tower, but a shepherd and pastor, with the heart of a father. For him, prayer and meditation—communion with Christ—stand at the vibrant center of all Christian existence.

After a series of essays on Ratzinger, He Gave Us So Much also presents a selection of texts and homilies written by the late pope himself, arranged by Cardinal Sarah as a “spiritual itinerary” for prayer. These works invite us to follow Jesus in our own lives—body, soul, and spirit—to the ends of the earth and beyond.

What Is Christianity? <sup>E</sup>

The Last Writings | Benedict XVI

After Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI resigned from the papacy in 2013, he never stopped thinking or writing. Near the end of his life, he and editor Elio Guerriero gathered together a whole volume of new material. The pope asked that it be published upon his death.

This final work is What Is Christianity? It takes up a kaleidoscopic array of themes: the Christian faith's relationship with other religions, especially Judaism and Islam; the theology and reform of the liturgy; the priesthood; the saints; the Eucharist; the travesty of abuse; the beauty of nature; Italian and German culture; and much more.

Foreword by Archbishop George Leo Thomas

This inspiring, insightful, and often humorous look at the life of Father Stuart Long is told by his close friend Father Bart Tolleson. After their relationship began and almost ended with a practical joke, the two men were ordained together and forged a strong, lasting friendship. As the exuberant, edgy Father Stu confronted a rare degenerative disease, the former brawler and professional boxer used every ounce of his declining strength to fight the good fight for souls.

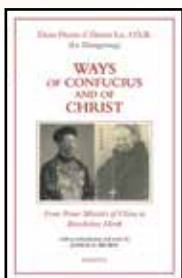

Also included in this book is the enduring legacy of Father Stu, whose moving story continues to draw people closer to God, especially in times of suffering. His life inspired actor Mark Wahlberg to produce the film drama Father Stu, in which Wahlberg plays the title role. Illustrated with many photos.

Ways of Confucius and of Christ Pierre-Celestin Lu, O.S.B.

Through the tumultuous late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, Lu Zhengxiang—a devoted disciple of both Confucius and Christ—served his native China as a leading diplomat and statesman for more than thirty years. He entered the Catholic Church in 1911 and became a Benedictine monk in 1927. The historical and spiritual riches of Chinese Christianity have barely begun to be tapped in the West. Lu’s story is a true treasure.

The Lord Romano Guardini

This classic work is the most complete and in-depth telling of the life of Christ—his life and times, in historical context, but not lacking the psychology behind his physical being and spirit. Unlike other books seeking to strip Jesus’ story to reveal only the human being, Romano Guardini’s The Lord gives the complete story of Jesus Christ—as man, and as God. Pope Benedict XVI’s introduction lauds Guardini’s work as providing a full understanding of the Son of God, away from the prejudice that rationality engenders.

There and Back Again Fr. Dwight Longenecker

This is a unique tale of one man’s spiritual adventure, tracing God’s unusual plan of providence from 1950s America to England and back again.

Brought up in an Evangelical Protestant home, he attended the fundamentalist Bob Jones University, and continued his education by studying theology at Oxford University before being ordained as an Anglican minister.

Realizing that he and the Anglican Church were on divergent paths, in 1995 Longenecker and his family were received into the Catholic Church in England. For ten years they continued to live in England where he worked as a freelance writer and charity worker. Then in 2006 the door opened to return to the United States and be ordained as a Catholic priest.

Pondering the Permanent Things E Reflections on Faith, Art, and Culture Thomas Howard • Foreword by Peter Kreeft

According to the late Professor Thomas Howard, the poet and the prophet both speak a loud voice against the tide of secularism and eventual destruction. Yet how does this work? How does myth convey truth? How does architecture reflect eternal verities? How does the written word humanize and sanctify us? What treasure and stability does an ancient faith hold for the unsettled modern mind?

Howard spent his life answering these questions. Christians of all walks of life will appreciate his witty, devout, and cutting observations on faith, art, and the incarnation of Christ.

This book is a Catholic Christian response to the epidemic of racism, firmly rooted in the

Fr. Robert Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D.

Today, there is more science-based evidence for God, the soul, and life after death than ever before. Then why are scores of people turning to unbelief because of “science”? The answer is simple: they do not know the science. Science at the Doorstep to God presents in depth the latest evidence to turn the rising tide of unbelief. ## The Good, the Bad, and the Beautiful E History in Three Dimensions

Joseph Pearce

Christ is “the way, and the truth, and the life”, but fallen mankind, although made in Christ’s image, is not so pure. Human history—including Church history—is a tapestry woven of three threads: the good, the bad, and the beautiful. No one saw this three-dimensional form more clearly than Benedict XVI. For him, the goodness of the saints and the beauty of art are the only antidote to the dark thread of evil that runs through history. Inspired by this insight, Joseph Pearce shows how goodness and beauty work to conquer the bad.
