Life to the Full

True Stories that Reveal the Dignity of Every Human Life

Abby Johnson and Tyler Rowley

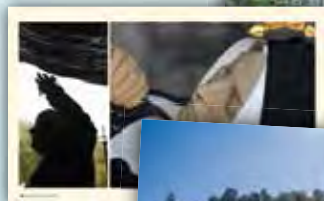

Abortion is a scourge on our world, perpetuated by a skewed understanding of love and freedom. It is time for them to speak. In Life to the Full, Abby Johnson and Tyler Rowley have collected twenty-three harrowing personal accounts that demonstrate the evil of abortion and, more crucially, the power of life.

Lourdes: Healing and Rebirth

Photographs by Sophie Delay
Preface by Thierry Hubert

Richly adorned throughout with full-color photographs and artwork, this book gathers together stories and meditations from great writers over the centuries who have been deeply touched by the grace of Our Lady of Lourdes—including poets, novelists, and popes. Some were firsthand witnesses of miracles; others were simply moved in their souls by the beauty of Lourdes and Mary's message.

The Privilege of Being a Woman

Alice von Hildebrand

Women historically have been denigrated as lower than men or viewed as privileged. Dr. Alice von Hildebrand characterizes the difference between such views as based on whether man's vision is secularistic or steeped in the supernatural. The Blessed Mother's role in the Incarnation points to the true privilege of being a woman. Both virginity and maternity meet in Mary who exhibits the feminine gifts of purity, receptivity to God's word, and life-giving nurturance at their highest.

Philosophy

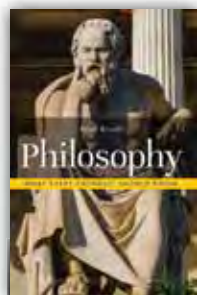

What Every Catholic Should Know

Peter Kreeft

Just what is philosophy? Is there objective truth? Is self-knowledge possible? Is it possible for human reason to know God? If there is a God, why is there evil? What is happiness and how can we achieve it? These and dozens of other crucial questions are asked and answered in this easy-to-read book by one of the best-known philosophers alive today. Every Catholic should own one book on philosophy. This is it.

The Man Who Left His Mark

How Mark's Gospel Answers Modern Questions

Peter Kreeft

In this unusual book on the Gospel of Mark, Peter Kreeft presents 252 contemporary questions that modern man asks about every aspect of the meaning of life, faith, love, suffering, friendship, death, eternity, God, Jesus and more. He then gives an answer to each question taken directly from Mark's Gospel which are always pointed and often surprising.

Church Councils

100 Questions and Answers

Paul Senz
Foreword by Mike Aquilina

More than a history of the twenty-one ecumenical councils, this question-and-answer book provides a practical and theological explanation of them. It provides the historical context that led to each council, the reasons it was convened, the major events that happened during the council, and the impact of its teachings, then and now.

An Introduction to Vatican II as an Ongoing Theological Event

Matthew Levering

This is an introduction to Vatican II with a detailed summary of each of its four central documents—the dogmatic constitutions—followed by explanations of how to interpret them. Levering offers a reading of each conciliar Constitution in light of a key theological author from the era: René Latourelle, S.J. for Dei Verbum; Louis Bouyer, C.O. for Sacrosanctum Concilium; Yves Congar, O.P. for Lumen Gentium; and Henri de Lubac, S.J. for Gaudium et Spes.

CURRENT ISSUES

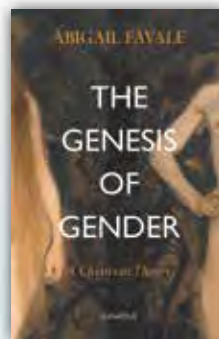

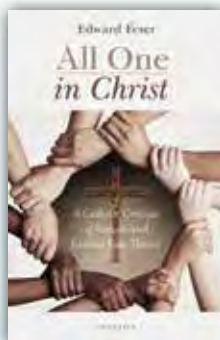

All One in Christ

A Catholic Critique of Racism and Critical Race Theory

Edward Feser

What does the Catholic Church teach about racism? What should Catholics think about Critical Race Theory, which is currently being widely promoted in the name of anti-racism? All One in Christ provides an exposition and defence of the Church's clear and consistent condemnation of racism, and shows that this condemnation is not a recent development, but is deeply rooted in centuries of papal teaching and Scholastic theology. It also shows that Critical Race Theory, far from being a remedy for racism, is in fact a new and insidious form of racism that cannot be reconciled with the social teaching of the Church and must be vigorously opposed by all Catholics.

The Genesis of Gender

A Christian Theory
Abigail Favale

The question of gender—who we are as men and women—has never been more pressing, or more misunderstood.

Weaving personal experience with expert knowledge, Dr. Abigail Favale provides an in-depth yet accessible account of the gender paradigm: a framework for understanding reality and identity that has recently risen to prominence. With substance, clarity, and compassion, Favale teases out the hidden assumptions of the gender paradigm and exposes its effects. Yet this book is not merely an exposé—it is also a powerful, moving articulation of a Christian understanding of reality: a holistic paradigm that proclaims the dignity of the body, the sacramental meaning of sexual difference, and the interconnectedness of all creation.

JESSE BOX SET

The Jesse Box Starter Set

The Jesse Box Starter Set is a great way to begin using the Jesse Box at home. It comes with everything you need (except scissors and glue): diorama, wooden dowels and wooden animals, 3 Bible story manuals (Noah's Ark, The Nativity, Origins of the Eucharist) which include cut outs for the scenery, props and biblical figures as well as the Bible Story itself and step by step lessons.

The Jesse Box product line is designed to engage children and parents alike in the staging and retelling of various stories from the Bible. Children cut out the Bible characters and put them onto the wooden dowels, the story is usually broken out into 3 different scenes or stage settings. As the Bible story is read, the children move the characters to reenact what is happening in the story and at the end of the story, there are lesson questions to further engage the children in discussing the meaning of the Bible story and what it teaches us.

SIGNS of GRACE

Stand-alone programs for
Confession and Holy Communion

Sacramental preparation for children and their parents

This is the Sacramental preparation program you've been waiting for!

Created by the trusted theologians and award-winning film studio at the Augustine Institute, Signs of Grace is the only comprehensive sacramental preparation program for children that includes a thorough family faith formation component.

Fun activities, entertaining videos with well-known presenters, engaging student guides, and compelling stories are all part of the Signs of Grace curriculum, helping children understand intellectually, spiritually, and emotionally that the Sacraments are a real encounter with Jesus Christ.

Also included are detailed teacher guides with instructions for parent meetings featuring the Augustine Institute's Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession and Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist series. These, along with family take-home pages in English and Spanish, help catechize and encourage parents in guiding their children toward the momentous occasions of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion.

Both You Are Loved and You Are Forgiven help children discover the love and mercy of Christ that has been revealed both in Sacred Scripture and through the rich teaching of the Church as particularly expressed in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Help children AND their parents experience the peace of Reconciliation with You Are Forgiven!

The curriculum includes seven sessions. Each presents the good news of salvation offered to us in Jesus Christ, with a focus on helping children understand intellectually, spiritually, and emotionally that the Sacrament of Reconciliation is a real encounter with him, and that he desires to forgive and heal us at the deepest levels of our humanity.

Activities, Scripture, videos, and stories are provided to engage both the mind and the heart so that the child can come to fully understand the gift of grace and mercy offered through the Sacrament.

And while the curriculum is focused on the child, it also recognizes that it is in the Christian family that the Faith is first learned and is most effectively understood and lived out. A Family Take Home Page is provided with each session in English and Spanish to engage parents and the entire family in this journey of Faith.

A detailed teacher guide provides instructions for parent sessions using Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession, the acclaimed series about the Sacrament of Confession produced by the award-winning Augustine Institute Studios.

A Missal for Children

A Missal for Children will help children to better understand what the holy Mass is, and will guide them through the liturgy to meditate on the mystery of the Eucharist. Each of the prayers of the Mass is numbered. The same number precedes the explanation of the prayer on the facing page. This way, children can read the text of the Mass on the right-hand page and find its explanation on the left.

WORD of LIFE™

An evangelizing catechesis that answers
the why of the Catholic faith.

We know the challenges facing religious education today, from the struggle to get parents involved to a culture that questions if objective truth exists. That's why Word of Life offers solutions for authentic catechetical renewal. The Word of Life curriculum is a beacon of hope to change hearts and minds in parishes and schools nationwide.

An offering from the  AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE and  ignatius press

Through its four golden catechetical threads, Word of Life provides a vision with answers.

Salvation History

Tells the story of God's presence and plan in history and our place in that plan.

Christian Anthropology

Reveals our identity in Christ and who we are called to be.

Heroic Virtue and Character Formation

Makes clear that our dignity and purpose are found by choosing to live with heroic virtue and character.

Learning through Discipleship

Witnesses ways to inspire students to live as committed disciples of Christ.

"It is the most complete integration of truth and creativity I have used in 40 years of teaching. I can develop very imaginative classes without having to depend on so many other supports. I love this program. It is so rich in content."

Faith & Life

A Catechetical Series for Grades One through Eight

The Faith and Life religion series continues to be hailed in the field of religious education for its outstanding presentation of the truth, goodness and beauty of the Catholic Faith. It is a comprehensive catechetical program that combines beautiful classical and original artwork with a solid doctrinal and scriptural presentation that is praised by teachers, students and parents everywhere. Each grade level presents the story of salvation history; through this love story students encounter Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior.

The Faith and Life religious education series is in full conformity with the Catechism of the Catholic Church by the USCCB. The series presents Catholic teaching using the time-tested ecclesial methodology and spiral development of catechesis, in a beautiful, student-friendly, comprehensive format.

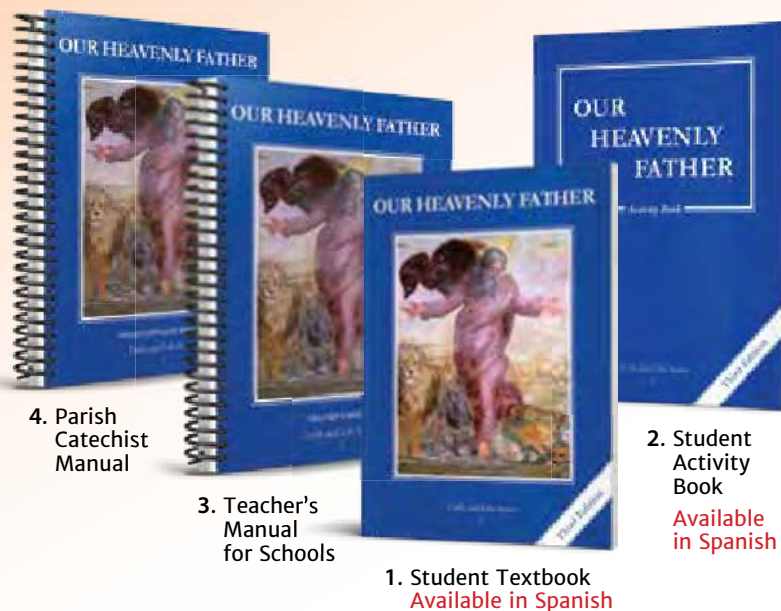

Faith and Life is excellent for grades 1–8 in Catholic schools and parish catechetical programs as well as at home.

"I give the Faith and Life series my highest recommendation. We teach our children with these texts and encourage others to do the same."

— Scott Hahn,
Steubenville, OH

"The Faith and Life series . . . provides a clear and informative presentation of what we as Catholics believe, live and teach."

— Most Rev. John J. Myers,
Archbishop of Newark

Faith & Life Core Components

- 1 Student Textbook (Available in English or Spanish) includes short reading chapters. Each chapter features sacred art to exemplify the beauty and depth of the faith, new vocabulary words for each chapter in bold, and Q&As that synthesize and distill key doctrinal elements. Methodologies in the teacher manuals enhance student text features to maximize the student's understanding of the Gospel and the student's faith response.
- 2 Student Activity Book (Available in English or Spanish) includes reinforcement exercises such as matching, crossword puzzles, fill-in-the-blank, and discussion questions.
- 3 Teacher's Manual for Schools includes four teaching lessons and one review lesson for each chapter. Each chapter includes chapter topic references for Scripture and the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Each of the four lessons includes a step-by-step presentation of lesson aims, materials, and how to begin, develop, reinforce and conclude the lesson.
- 4 Parish Catechist Manual includes once a week presentations that can be completed in 60 to 90 minutes, designed specifically with the parish catechist in mind. Easily used by new and experienced catechists. The Parish Catechist Manual consists of a 22–25 week curriculum that can be expanded. 25 weeks gives catechists extra time for students to participate in sacramental or devotional practices of the Church. Includes an introductory lesson on salvation history and liturgical year lessons.

An invitation to know, love and trust God and his love story.	Preparation for First Reconciliation and First Communion.	A special emphasis on God's love and mercy in the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist.	Salvation history points students towards Jesus Christ who fulfills Old Testament promises.	A study of the Creed. Students come to understand that they must stand firm in their faith.	Part 1 Morality: The Ten Commandments and Beatitudes Part 2 The Holy Mass	Salvation History and a study of the seven sacraments as channels of God's grace.	A study on the Church; the call to holiness through virtue, works of mercy, vocation and social justice.

Sacramental Prep

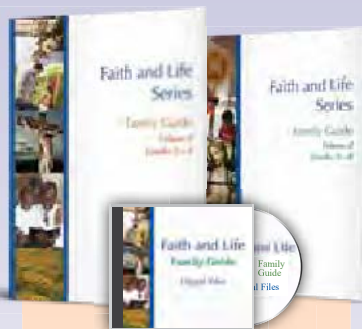

Reconciliation & First Communion

Grade 2 prepares students to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Communion by helping them to understand how the Sacraments are a part of the love story between God and man:

- The students see how the present is linked to the past and how the covenants of the Old Testament are fulfilled in the New Covenant.
- They learn how the past events of the Bible become present to us during all liturgical celebrations.

Preparing for the Sacraments in the context of this story will make it clear that the sacraments are not mere rituals; rather it is through the Sacraments that we are intimately united to God and receive His redeeming grace and mercy.

Additional Resources for Parents & Teachers

Faith and Life Series Family Guide is available in book, CD, and digital download formats. Digital format is a Zip file download exclusively from Ignatius.com. See p 13 of the catalogue for product codes.

The Faith & Life Series Family Guide

Designed to guide parents to share in their children's faith formation. Step-by-step instructions assist parents each week through prayer, review questions (and answers), life application and ideas for living out the Faith at home. Parents, too, can grow in their understanding of Jesus Christ and the Catholic Faith through the Family Guide.

Sacramental Prep

Confirmation

Grade 7 covers a complete presentation of salvation history followed by two chapters on each of the sacraments.

Grade 8 covers the life of the Church and the Christian in the world, essential for both pre and post Confirmation students.

"The Faith and Life series is simply the best catechetical program for grades 1-8 available in the English language."

Benefits for Students & Families

- Parents are empowered to become primary teachers of their children's faith. It is the perfect means to learn the Faith at home when there is not enough time in the classroom.
- Children are given the flexibility to learn their faith at a time that does not conflict with their sports or other family activities.
- Learning is individualized; students learn at their own pace.

Benefits for Schools & Parishes

- Teachers and catechists have more time to teach skills, for activities and discussions.
- Assessments and reports are all automated online making it easy for teachers and catechists to communicate with parents.

"Faith and Life Online gives us the opportunity to learn the 'meat and potatoes' of Catholicism at home as a family. We use the lessons to engage the family on Sundays as an enrichment program."

— Program Director at Saint Alban Roe Catholic
Church, St. Louis, MO

Flipping the Classroom

A new approach to improving parish religious education and engaging children in the faith.

Flipping the Classroom is a new approach that is opposite from traditional classroom learning where lecture is followed by homework. Students learn cognitive material online at home. Then classroom time is left open for skills and application. Through Faith and Life online learning is always engaging, interactive and individualized.

Julia Greeley
Secret Angel to the Poor
Maura Roan McKeegan
Illustrated by Gina Capaldi

NEW!

Grades
AND UP

Julia Greeley, a former slave, was an angel of mercy to the poor of Denver, Colorado—a bustling, growing Western town. She was very poor herself, but whatever she received, often by begging, she shared with those who needed it more than she did.

Freed from slavery as an adult, Julia moved to Denver and there she mostly worked for families: cooking, cleaning, and caring for children. She pulled her little red wagon through dark alleys at night so that people wouldn't be embarrassed by receiving charity from her.

Upon her death, huge crowds of people, rich and poor, lined up at Sacred Heart Church for hours to honor her. Only then did people begin to realize how many lives she had touched with her humble charity. Her cause for sainthood was opened in Rome in 2016.

Reprobus wished to serve the greatest and most powerful king in all the world. So he set off to find him . . ." For hundreds of years Catholics honored Christopher as the patron saint of travelers. But when he came to be seen as more mythical than historical, the Church discouraged devotion to him. Wanting to preserve the legend of the giant who carried the Christ Child, Tomie dePaola retold and illustrated the story in this captivating book.

The Ignatius Critical Editions

The Ignatius Critical Editions provide a scholarly presentation and insight into classical works of literature based on their historical context without a reinterpretation or imposition of modern ideologies. Understand these great books as their authors intended.

Edited by acclaimed literary biographer Joseph Pearce, the Ignatius Critical Editions ensure that traditional moral readings of the works are given prominence, instead of “politically correct” readings, which often dominate other series of classic works. Ignatius Critical Editions enable educators, students, and other lovers of good literature to buy editions of great works without having to “buy into” an ideological agenda.

The series is ideal for anyone wishing to understand the great works of Western civilization, enabling the modern reader to enjoy these classics in the company of some of the finest teachers of literature alive today.

IGNATIUS CRITICAL EDITIONS FEATURES

Ignatius Critical Editions feature the editorial and critical work of accomplished professors of literature and scholarly commentators.

Each book includes an extensive scholarly introduction and several essays of contemporary criticism. Many of the books also include essays of classic criticism by renowned, trusted critics of the past.

Ignatius Critical Editions also feature detailed, updated annotation. While the explanatory notes in many older critical editions can often frustrate readers, the annotation in the Ignatius Critical Editions is comprehensive and understandable. Readers can enjoy clear, reliable explanations, written in straightforward, modern prose.

Scholarly, readable, and attractive, Ignatius Critical Editions are perfectly suited for teachers, students, and serious readers of every sort.

The Gaze of Jesus A Novel

Riccardo Bacchelli
Translated and with an introduction by
Anthony Esolen

Eight-time Nobel Prize nominee Riccardo Bacchelli imagines the life of the Gerasene demoniac after his exorcism: his inner battles, his return to the family and the first-century Jewish community, his quest for love and meaning. The healer's gaze has been branded into his mind, but he cannot grasp who this man really is. As he gathers secondhand news of the Galilean miracle worker, he is determined to piece together the puzzle.

Women Mystics

Louis Bouyer

Bouyer studies five female figures whose influence catalyzed an interior renaissance within Catholicism—the kind the Church needs as much today as it did in times past. Between Hadewijch of Antwerp, Teresa of Avila, Thérèse of Lisieux, Elizabeth of the Trinity, and

Edith Stein, there is a striking continuity, yet each is unique—and deeply creative—in her spiritual mission, and each has given to Christians a vivid glimpse into the reality of the living God.

Adam and Eve after the Pill, Revisited Mary Eberstadt

Celebrated author Mary Eberstadt continues her ground-breaking examination of the legacy of the sexual revolution. The book's predecessor, Adam and Eve after the Pill (2012), dissected the revolution's microcosmic fallout via its empirical effects on the lives of men, women, and children. This follow-on book investigates the revolution's macrocosmic transformations in three spheres: society, politics, and Christianity. It also includes an analysis of the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision that overturned Roe v. Wade.

The Discovery of God

Henri de Lubac

Henri De Lubac played a major role in nearly all of the theological debates within Roman Catholicism during the twentieth century. Educated in the renewed Thomism of Blondel, Rousselot, and Maréchal, he urged a return to the church fathers. The Discovery of God contains the guiding thread of all of de Lubac's work: the idea of God and the life of the spirit.
